About the Author

Leesi Ebenezer Mitee holds a Master of Laws degree (LLM) of the University of Huddersfield, United Kingdom; Barrister-at-Law postgraduate professional law practice certificate of the Nigerian Law School; Bachelor of Laws degree (LLB) and Higher National Diploma (HND) in Town Planning of the Rivers State University of Science & Technology, Nigeria. He is also an alumnus of the Rivers State College of Arts & Science (IJMB Pre-degree) and Saint Pius X College, Bodo (School Certificate).

In addition to teaching and general law research, his special interests include public access to legislation as a human right; development of online legal information infrastructure including the Nigerian Law Resources website (www.nigerianlawresources.com) and publishing of law eBooks (electronic books) to facilitate access to Nigerian legal information; legal systems; legal education; and the legal framework for e-Commerce. Mr Mitee is a member of The Internet Society (USA); Society of Legal Scholars (United Kingdom); Association of Law Teachers (United Kingdom); Statute Law Society (United Kingdom); and Nigerian Bar Association (Nigeria).

In 1998, Leesii Mitee was hired by the United Nations as the National Consultant (Nigeria) for the Capacity Development for Social Reconciliation Project. Its goal was to research and analyse legislation on Arms Control in Mali, Cameroon, Nigeria, and Ghana with a view to assessing the juridical foundations of the proposed West Africa Moratorium on Small Arms (light weapons). Based on the findings and recommendations of the Project, sixteen States in West Africa signed the Moratorium on 30 October 1998, which enabled the United Nations to commence its implementation.

Leesi's books include Laws of Rivers State: A Comprehensive Guide (1994) on the basis of which he became a Law Research Consultant to the Rivers State Government on the Laws of Rivers State; Nigerian Legal System: A Fundamental Approach (Volume 1 – 2001 & Volume 2 – 2002); and Mitee's Business Law Series (2002).

He is married to Mrs Telimoye Leesii Mitee, and they have two children – Raphael Leesii Mitee and Sharon Leesii Mitee.
